The memory of bad actions which came back every time that I called to mind
my past
crept into my head
like a black wave or deafening noise

but now i'm ready to begin again cause i learned to recognize the chance and change this evil frame of mind into something like a sweet romance i deleted every qualm of conscience and so i began to forgive myself no matter if i killed or if i kept in a pornmobile.online trap 'cause somebody told me that if i regret

my soul will be safe
